

Governance MATTERS

EBOR ACADEMY TRUST

Being a school governor is a privilege and a responsibility

It is heartening to see so much passion for education exist among the governing bodies of the schools in Ebor Academy Trust.

Governors want the best for their schools. They turn out on cold nights to attend meetings to discuss the direction of the school, teaching and learning, to challenge and support heads and senior leaders – and all as volunteers. They do it because they want to and because they now have a real say in how schools are run and how today's children are shaped into tomorrow's citizens.

It's not an easy role but it is a fulfilling one.

Despite diverse backgrounds and a variety of reasons of why they want to be school governors, often the only common thread is the desire for their school to continually improve.

We celebrate this diversity among our governors and would like to encourage more. There is no "mould" with which to form a school governor and nor should there be. Your willingness to work collectively in the interests of the children of the school is qualification enough. If you can bring a transferrable skill from your job, so much the better.

It's our role to fill in any gaps of knowledge that may hinder you from being an effective school governor and this is why we have compiled this booklet. Chances are, some of the content is already known to you but hopefully some things will be new and it's always a good idea to go over established practice anyway.

Thank you for your interest in school governance.

RICHARD LUDLOW

Chief Executive and Executive Headteacher

Commitment to high standards

A government committee on Standards in Public Life, chaired by Lord Nolan, produced the following principles. They remain widely used and as Ebor schools are publicly funded, are included here as a reminder for our governors of the high standards expected:

- Selflessness – Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other benefits for themselves, their family or their friends.
- Integrity – Holders of public office should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their official duties.
- Objectivity – In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, holders of public office should make choices on merit.
- Accountability – Holders of public office are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their office.
- Openness – Holders of public office should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.
- Honesty – Holders of public office have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.
- Leadership – Holders of public office should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.

Governor Code of Conduct

This code sets out the expectations on and commitment required for governors who are members of Ebor Academy Trust local governing bodies in order for the local governing body (LGB) to properly carry out its work with the school and the community.

The LGB has the following core strategic functions:

- Strategic leadership that sets and champions vision, ethos and strategy
- Accountability that drives up educational standards and financial performance
- People with the right skills, experience, qualities and capacity
- Structures that reinforce clearly defined roles and responsibilities
- Compliance with statutory and contractual arrangements
- Evaluation to monitor and improve the quality and impact of governance.

As individuals on the LGB we agree to the following:

Roles and responsibilities

- We understand the purpose of the LGB and the role of the headteacher
- We accept that we have no legal authority to act individually, except when the LGB has given us delegated authority to do so, and therefore we will only speak on behalf of the LGB when we have been specifically authorised to do so
- We accept collective responsibility for all decisions made by the LGB or its delegated agents. This means that we will not speak against majority decisions outside the governing board meeting
- We have a duty to act fairly and without prejudice, and in so far as we have responsibility for staff, we will fulfil all that is expected of a good employer
- We will encourage open government and will act appropriately
- We will consider carefully how our decisions may affect the community and other schools
- We will always be mindful of our responsibility to maintain and develop the ethos and reputation of our school and the Trust. Our actions within the school and the local community will reflect this
- In making or responding to criticism or complaints we will follow the procedures established by the Trust governing board
- We will actively support and challenge the headteacher.

Commitment

- We acknowledge that accepting office as a governor involves the commitment of significant amounts of time and energy
- We will each involve ourselves actively in the work of the LGB, and accept our fair share of responsibilities, including service on committees or working groups
- We will make full efforts to attend all meetings and where we cannot attend explain in advance why we are unable to
- We will get to know the school well and respond to opportunities to involve ourselves in school/ trust activities

- We will visit the school, with all visits arranged in advance with the relevant leader, and undertaken within the framework established by the LGB
- We will engage in assessing our skills in line with Governor Competencies annually, or in line with requirements, and consider seriously our individual and collective needs for induction, training and development, and in response to this will engage in relevant training
- We will share any particular skills or interests we have with other governors, both within our school and across the trust
- We accept that in the interests of open government, our full names, date of appointment, terms of office, roles on the governing board, attendance records, relevant business and pecuniary interests, category of governor and the body responsible for appointing us will be published on the school's website, and that we will be required to undergo relevant checks, including enhanced DBS checks
- In the interests of transparency we accept that information relating to governors will be collected and logged on the DfE's national database of governors (Edubase).

Relationships

- We will strive to work as a team in which constructive working relationships are actively promoted
- We will express views openly, courteously and respectfully in all our communications with other governors and trustees and the clerk to the LGB
- We will support the chair in their role of ensuring appropriate conduct both at meetings and at all times
- We are prepared to answer queries from other board members and trustees in relation to delegated functions and take into account any concerns expressed, and we will acknowledge the time, effort and skills that have been committed to the delegated function by those involved
- We will seek to develop effective working relationships with the headteacher, staff and parents, the trust, and other relevant agencies and the community.

Confidentiality

- We will record any pecuniary or other business interest (including those related to people we are connected with) that we have in connection with the LGB's business in the Register of Business Interests, and if any such conflicted matter arises in a meeting we will offer to leave the meeting for the appropriate length of time. We accept that the Register of Business Interests will be published on the school/trust's website
- We will also declare any conflict of loyalty at the start of any meeting should the situation arise
- We will act in the best interests of the school as a whole and not as a representative of any group, even if elected to the LGB.

Breach of this code of conduct

- If we believe this code has been breached, we will raise this issue with the chair and the chair will arrange for the matter to be investigated. The LGB will only use suspension/ removal as a last resort after seeking to resolve any difficulties or disputes in more constructive ways
- Should it be the chair that is believed to have breached the code, then the trust or in the case of the trust chair another trust board, will take on this responsibility.

Governor induction – what to expect

As a school governor, it's important you get to understand your school. This will include a visit, a conversation with the chair of governors and head to understand the leadership of the school, the School Development Plan and School Evaluation Plan. We'll also introduce you to Ebor's Central Services Team and your school's executive headteacher and hub lead. A skills audit through the National Governance Association will help identify your training needs, which will be addressed in a number of ways.

Training and development

We want you to be the best school governor you can be. We will give you access to face-to-face learning as well as online training. There are networking opportunities where you will get to meet with school governors of schools across the trust and regular and specific training courses, the details of which are on our website (www.ebor.academy). All these measures are to enable you to properly hold the headteacher or head of school to account.

Clerking

Ebor's clerks help governors in many ways. Clerks work with LGB chairs to prepare agendas and are responsible for recording minutes at meetings. They will send you regular information, including the trust's weekly email newsletter, The Bugle. In an attempt to be as paper-free as possible, we all use Google drives and clerks will organise the necessary training so you can make full use of the technology. We will also set up your own Ebor LGB email address for the secure distribution of sometimes sensitive information. Clerks will also monitor governor training and are a key link in connecting the LGB to school leaders and the Central Services Team.

Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks

The Disclosure and Barring Service helps schools make safer recruitment decisions and prevent unsuitable people from working with vulnerable groups, including children. Because of safeguarding issues, Ebor Academy Trust requires all staff and volunteers, including governors, to undergo an enhanced DBS check. For more details click here.

Discharging responsibilities of the LGB

The work of school leaders, including governors, is driven by a series of considerations, which together make up the design and delivery of learning. These considerations each have associated tasks, which are delegated to the school head to undertake in collaboration and consultation with the LGB. During inspection, governors will be held to account for their knowledge of the elements contained within this document.

Composition of LGBs

The trust encourages all their academies to be self-governing. The structure of each LGB has been agreed taking into consideration the unique status of each individual school. The number of members of each LGB will be either 8 or 12. Most LGBs will be formed following the structures listed below:

Church schools· 8 governors: 2 foundation, 2 Trust appointed, 2 parents, 1 staff, 1 Headteacher or Head of School; or 12 governors: 3 foundation, 3 Trust Appointed, 3 parents, 2 staff, 1 Headteacher or Head of School

They are appointed for 1-4 years, with the opportunity for re-appointment. An associate member could be a pupil, member of staff or someone with expertise in a particular area.
